EMPLOYEE RULES AND WORKPLACE DISCIPLINE POLICY

Fictional document created for RAG/chatbot testing. It is not an official policy of a real company.

Document Code	HR-POL-001
Version	1.2
Effective Date	August 1, 2026
Scope	All employees

1. Working Hours

Employees work from Monday to Friday, 08:30-17:30. The lunch break is from 12:00-13:00.

Employees who are more than 15 minutes late must notify their direct manager. Being late 3 times in one month will result in a written reminder.

2. Leave Policy

Full-time employees are entitled to 12 days of annual leave. Requests for 2 or more consecutive days of leave must be submitted at least 3 working days in advance.

For emergency leave, employees must notify their manager before 09:00 on the day of absence.

3. Dress Code and Conduct

Employees must dress professionally and appropriately for an office environment.

Employee ID cards must be worn in the workplace.

Employees must not create excessive noise, insult colleagues, or engage in conduct that negatively affects the working environment.

4. Company Property

Company-issued laptops, monitors, access cards, and other equipment may only be used for work-related purposes.

Employees must immediately notify the IT department if company equipment is lost or damaged.

5. Disciplinary Action

Minor violations may result in a reminder or written warning. Serious violations will be handled under the company's disciplinary process and applicable law.
