

GREENFIELD DIGITAL JOINT STOCK COMPANY

CODE OF CONDUCT AND BUSINESS ETHICS

Fictional document created for RAG/chatbot testing. It is not an official policy of a real company.

Document Code	COM-ETH-001
Version	1.1
Effective Date	April 20, 2026
Scope	Employees and managers

1. Respect in the Workplace

All employees must communicate professionally, respect differences, and refrain from bullying, threatening, or harassing behavior.

Personal conflicts should be discussed with a manager or HR rather than through attacks on shared workplace communication channels.

2. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose personal interests that could affect purchasing, recruitment, or vendor selection decisions.

Employees must not use their position to improperly favor relatives or related businesses.

3. Gifts and Hospitality

Gifts with an estimated value above VND 1,000,000 must be disclosed to the employee's manager and the Compliance department.

Employees must not accept cash or gifts intended to influence business decisions.

4. Communications and Social Media

Only authorized individuals may make official statements on behalf of the company.

Employees must not post internal data, system screenshots, or customer information on social media.

5. Reporting Violations

Employees may report violations to their manager, HR, or the Compliance channel. The company prohibits retaliation against anyone who makes a good-faith report.
